

MILES TO GO

EXPERIENCED SUBSTANCE ABUSE EDUCATION

We cordially invite you to attend a special evening for our parents. Jonathan Scott, educator and author from Miles To Go Drug Prevention Education, will present on 1/31/12 at 6:30 pm.

Topics covered at the parent presentation will include:

Drug Fact Update: Current drug issues you need to know about.

“The Big Three” things you can do to keep your kids safe.

Effective Communication: How to keep the conversation going with your kids.

Teen parties, curfews and much more.

Miles To Go will be working with our students to provide age-appropriate information about drugs, alcohol, tobacco and human behavior. We encourage all parents to attend this educational evening as a part of an ongoing effort to raise children who are less likely to get involved with drugs and alcohol.

The first book in their series of handbooks titled “Not All Kids Do Drugs - Lessons In Drug Education: Proactive Parenting” and their second book “The Mother’s Checklist of Drug Prevention: All The Little Things We Say and Do” are now available and will be discussed at this special evening. Books will be available for purchase at the meeting.

You can pre-order your signed handbook to be delivered to the meeting no later than: 1/30/12. Click below, and then click on the blue pre-order box.

Miles To Go has provided drug education to the parents, teachers and students of an exclusive clientele of private schools in California for the past 16 years. Jonathan Scott and Kelly Townsend are professional speakers and writers who specialize in drug prevention education that leaves old-style lecturing behind and educates about drugs using science, humor and multi-sensory teaching techniques.
